

Starchaser

Posted on June 23, 2012 by immy1710 - Imogen

<http://artkidimogen.wordpress.com/2012/06/23/starchaser/>

Starchaser is a lovely play written by Lally Katz. This film is all about a girl called Catta who has a very special day coming up, it is going to be her thirteenth birthday but it is also going to be the day of her parents funeral. Catta believes that if she keeps believing that her parents are alive then they will come back to life. Then suddenly her toy lion comes to life to take her on a special journey that he promises will get her parents back to life, but it turns out that he isn't telling the whole truth.

In starchaser there are so many exciting and dramatic events to keep you interested the whole way throughout the play. I think that the play looked really affective considering there was only 4 people in the cast. Even though it was really good I did think that it would have been better if Catta and Tommy (Catta's younger brother) were played by actual children instead of adults because it looked a bit silly because Tommy was taller even though he was younger and Catta and Tommy were too close to the height of the parents and other characters which didn't make it very believable.

Overall I thought that it was really good and I hope that Arena puts on the play again.

The play was written by Lally Katz and produced by Arena at the Arts Centre.